U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND
C.A. NO.

CA 13- 152

COMPLAINT FOR DECLATORY JUDGMENT AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

This claim is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Declaratory Judgment Act and as such fall within the jurisdiction of this Honorable Superior Court.

Parties

1. Plaintiff(s) Jane B. Veleker (hereinafter referred to as "Veleker") is a resident of the State of Rhode Island. The subject property is located in 40 Fish Hill Road, West Greenwich, RI.
2. Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") has a mailing address of 8200 Jones Branch Drive, MS 202, McLean, VA 22102. Freddie Mac is the alleged foreclosing entity.

Jurisdiction

3. This Honorable Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 (diversity jurisdiction) and the matter in controversy exceeds $75,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs, and because the Defendants are foreign corporations based outside of the State of Rhode Island.
4. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 b) (2) in that a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this claim have occurred, and the real property that is the subject of this action is situated within the State of Rhode Island.
5. Plaintiff further avers that the Court has redressible claims over the matters in this complaint pursuant to the following statutes:
 - a. Plaintiff, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claims loss of state property rights to redeem her mortgage from an unauthorized foreclosure advertiser without a judicial hearing.

- b. Plaintiff claims ownership of the latter described premises and seeks to clear her title of all illegal encumbrances pursuant to the provisions of Rhode Island General Laws § 34-16-4.
- c. Plaintiff claims ownership of the latter described premises and seeks to clear her title of all void conveyances pursuant to the provisions of Rhode Island General Laws § 34-16-4.
- d. Plaintiff claims that only she has a marketable title to the premises pursuant to the provisions of R.I.G.L. § 34-13.1-5, to wit, forty (40) years of ownership of the fee interest.
- e. Plaintiff as a mortgagor, may seek to redeem, pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 34-26-1, her mortgage note and mortgage deed from the actual mortgagee, or lawful assignee of the mortgage deed and note.
- f. Plaintiff claims a judicial determination pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 9-30-2 whether the deed to the premises is affected by any conveyance of another person in her chain of title.

Facts

- 6. On August 30, 1993, Veleker executed a mortgage (the “Mortgage”) which named First Federal Savings Bank of America as the Lender and Mortgagee.
- 7. First Federal Savings Bank of America never assigned the mortgage to Freddie Mac.
- 8. First Federal never assigned the mortgage to Webster.
- 9. On or about March 31, 2010, Webster Bank attempted to assign this Mortgage to Freddie Mac. (“Assignment”) Adele DiNuzzo signed. Adele DiNuzzo had no authority to assign.
- 10. Adele DiNuzzo was an employee at Webster, not a Vice-President or Assistant Secretary of First Federal.
- 11. First Federal did not order the assignment to Webster.
- 12. Adele DiNuzzo was attempting to assign the mortgage for Webster, not First Federal.
- 13. No power of attorney from First Federal to either Adele DiNuzzo or Webster is recorded and referenced in the subject assignment.
- 14. Adele DiNuzzo was a robo-signer and did not have the requisite intent to assign.

15. The subject assignment is Adele DiNuzzo's attempt to defraud the general public and the Land Evidence Records by manufacturing standing to foreclose in Freddie Mac.
16. Webster never held the note.
17. The referenced corporate resolution is of no force and effect.
18. Webster cannot assign anything it does not own.
19. Webster never holds the beneficial interest in the subject property.
20. The beneficial interest in the property can only be transferred through negotiation of the promissory note.
21. An assignment of the mortgage without a corresponding negotiation of the promissory note is a nullity.
22. The assignment is void pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-11-1.
23. The "Assignment" is fatally flawed in its execution and effect by virtue of the fact that it was not assigned by the mortgagee as required by General Laws of Rhode Island at §34-11-24.
24. Webster never received any interest in the property to transfer to Freddie Mac.
25. Webster never held the legal or beneficial interest in the subject premises.
26. The assignment from Webster to Freddie Mac is void due to failure of consideration.
27. According to RIGL 34-4-11, any future interest in property must be transferred through a conveyance.
28. The mortgage was never conveyed to Freddie Mac or subsequent securitized trust.
29. Freddie Mac pooled the note into securitized trusts.
30. No assignment to a securitized trust is recorded.
31. First Federal Savings Bank of America had no standing to foreclose.
32. The Mortgage, at page 1, defines the Lender as First Federal Savings Bank of America.
33. The Mortgage contains language that provides for the Statutory Power of Sale in the event of a default on the note by Veleker.

34. At Paragraph 22 of the Mortgage, entitled "Acceleration; Remedies", it states that "Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under Section 18 unless Applicable Law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date, not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to bring a court action to assert the non-existence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and sale. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender at its option may require immediate payment in full of sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may invoke the STATUTORY POWER OF SALE and any other remedies permitted by Applicable Law. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this Section 22, including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence.

If Lender invokes the STATUTORY POWER OF SALE, Lender shall mail a copy of a notice of sale to Borrower as provided in Section 15. Lender shall publish the notice of sale, and the Property shall be sold in the manner prescribed by Applicable Law, Lender or its designee may purchase the Property at any sale. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the following order: (a) to all expense of the sale, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees; (b) to all sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (c) any excess to the person or persons legally entitled to it." (emphasis added)

- 35. The mortgage does not state anywhere that the mortgagee or its assigns may invoke the Statutory Power of Sale.
- 36. The Lender never invoked the statutory power of sale in this matter.
- 37. The Lender never mailed a notice of sale to the Borrower.
- 38. The Lender never published the notice of sale.
- 39. Freddie Mac, which is not the Lender, wrongly and without contractual or statutory authority, attempted to invoke the power of sale.
- 40. Freddie Mac, which is not the Lender, wrongly published the notice of sale without contractual or statutory authority.
- 41. The actions taken by Freddie Mac are without any force or effect relative to the invocation of the statutory power of sale or the actual sale of the property because it is not now, nor has it ever been the Lender as defined by both the note and the mortgage.

42. The foreclosure sale was not noticed or scheduled or advertised as required by the Note and Mortgage.
43. To foreclose pursuant to §34-11-22, the language of the Statute and the Note and Mortgage must be followed to the letter.
44. The foreclosure is not in compliance with statutory mandates and is not in compliance with the plain language in the Note and Mortgage.
45. Freddie Mac has no standing to foreclose.
46. The true identity of the foreclosing trust is not disclosed.
47. The Lender in this case was the only party, pursuant to the plain language of the mortgage, which was prepared by and used by the Defendant or Defendants, and in the event of any inconsistencies in said document, said inconsistencies and the results thereof are the fault of the Defendant or Defendants and the negative results thereof shall be construed against the Defendant or Defendants.
48. The facts and documents relative to this matter establish that any foreclosure relative to this property must be done judicially and not by way of advertisement and auction due to failure to exactly follow the letter of the law.
49. This claim is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Declaratory Judgment pursuant to the act.
50. This is a justiciable controversy and is appropriate for Declaratory Judgment pursuant to the act.
51. The note is current or has been satisfied by another third party.
52. First Federal Savings Bank of America never transferred possession of or negotiated the promissory note to Freddie Mac.
53. First Federal Savings Bank of America does not possess the promissory note.
54. Freddie Mac does not possess the promissory note.
55. The promissory note was never specially endorsed to First Federal Savings Bank of America.
56. The promissory note was never specially endorsed to Freddie Mac.

57. First Federal Savings Bank of America does not have the right to enforce the promissory note.
58. Freddie Mac does not have the right to enforce the promissory note.
59. The note is no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of First Federal Savings Bank of America.
60. The note is no longer recognized as an asset or account receivable of Freddie Mac.
61. First Federal Savings Bank of America does not hold the note.
62. Freddie Mac does not hold the note.
63. The mortgage is unsecured.
64. The mortgage is void due to fraud.
65. The mortgage is void pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-11-1.
66. The mortgage is unsecured pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-4-11.
67. The note is void due to fraud.
68. First Federal Savings Bank of America was not the true Lender in the underlying mortgage transaction.
69. The funds to fund the transaction came from a third party, not First Federal Savings Bank of America.
70. The non-existence of a default on the promissory note is not a prerequisite to remedies under the Quietening Title statute.
71. Plaintiffs have standing to challenge title and all assignments of the subject mortgage.
72. Plaintiffs have standing to clear title pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-16-4.
73. Plaintiffs have standing to challenge all assignments and foreclosure deeds pursuant to R.I.G.L. 34-16-4.
74. Freddie Mac is not the true foreclosing entity.

COUNT I
Declaratory Judgment

75. The Plaintiff herein reincorporates paragraphs 1-74 as if they are fully articulated herein.
76. By virtue of these facts and the legal consequence thereof, the foreclosure failed to vest title in Freddie Mac or the successful bidder at the foreclosure sale.
77. Veleker owns the subject property.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray this Court to issue an order, pursuant to the Uniform Declaratory Judgment Act, as follows:

- a. That judgment enters for Plaintiff on Plaintiff's Complaint regarding title to and ownership of the subject property.
- b. That the Court finds that Plaintiff owns the property as a matter of law.
- c. That the foreclosure sale be voided.
- d. Only Plaintiff has marketable title pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-13-1-1, et al.
- e. That the Court or other trier of fact order the defendants to pay Plaintiff's damages, which it deems appropriate.
- f. Declare the conveyance void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-11-1.
- g. Declare the assignment void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-11-1 and §34-11-24.
- h. Declare the acknowledgment void pursuant to R.I.G.L. §34-12-1, et al.
- i. That the Court or other trier of fact award Plaintiff's costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

COUNT II
Quieting Title
Rhode Island General Law §34-16-4

78. The Plaintiff herein reincorporates paragraphs 1-77 as if they are articulated herein.

79. The real estate at issue is a residential property located at 40 Fish Hill Road, West Greenwich, RI.

80. Freddie Mac or its successors claim to have the right to foreclose on the property. The address of Freddie Mac is set forth hereinabove.

81. Plaintiff purchased the property on January 30, 1991.

82. Freddie Mac or the successful bidder at the foreclosure sale took a foreclosure deed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief:

- a. That judgment enters for Plaintiff on Plaintiff's complaint regarding title and ownership of the subject property.
- b. That the Court finds that Plaintiff owns the property as a matter of law.
- c. That the Court order any foreclosure sale voided.
- d. That the Court enters an order quieting title to this property specifying that Plaintiff owns a fee simple interest in the subject property.
- e. That the Court or other trier of fact award Plaintiff costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.
